

ON THE DISC AND HALO OF THE MILKY WAY
THROUGH A STUDY OF STAR CLUSTERS

M. NAGL

Šabačka gimnazija "Vera Blagojević", Masarikova 13, 15000 Šabac, Serbia and Montenegro

Abstract. The subject is the metallicity and the correlation between the metallicity and spatial distribution of star clusters of the Milky Way. The open star clusters are confirmed as good indicators for the population of the galactic disc, whereas the globular ones are confirmed as good indicators in the case of the galactic halo.